Nicholas Cancino

My name is Nicholas Cancino I am a very dedicated and motivated person, I have my own youtube channel which where I record workouts and kind of am a fitness guru. Over the past years I have taken computer classes in hopes of being able to better my youtube channel and other things. I enjoy working out, playing baseball, and my youtube channel. I like to make life easier and happier for others, I try to make it a mission to make peoples days or make them at least somewhat happy. Once you get to know me, you will find that I can be a great companion and friend. I hope to later in life own my own gym along with being an engineer.
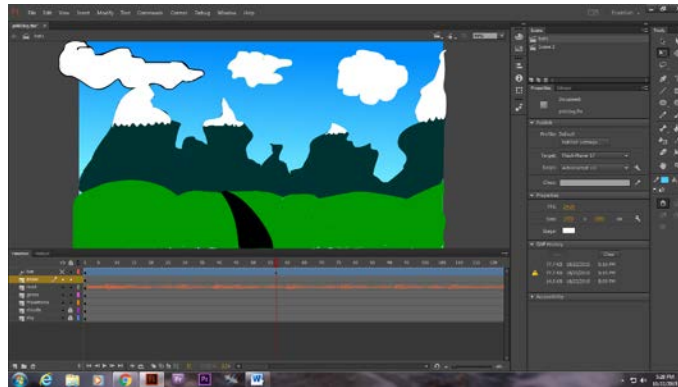

1. Background

I created a background for my bat in flash.

2. Character

I used flash to draw and input a bat into my background.
